Avery joined Beauxwright as a development manager in 2021 and now serves as a principal. She leads investments including acquisitions, development, capital raising, and construction management activities of residential and commercial properties across the Southeast. Avery brings unique experience in real estate capital markets, project execution, market analysis and underwriting to the team.

Prior to joining Beauxwright, Avery was a brokerage associate at Berkeley Capital Advisors, a firm headquartered in Charlotte, NC, that specializes in retail income property brokerage. While at Berkeley Capital, Avery helped organize over $350MM in transactional sales volume comprised of retail and commercial redevelopment opportunities across six states. Avery began her career with General Mills in Cincinnati, OH, where she specialized in business management on the Kroger account.

Avery was born and raised in Charlotte, where she currently resides with her husband and daughter. She is involved in her community as a member of the Urban Land Institute and is a licensed real estate broker in North Carolina. Avery graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a B.S. from Kenan-Flagler Business School. In her free time, she enjoys fishing, traveling, golfing, and spending time at Lake Wylie, SC.