Dan Mainous is a Senior Vice President and Senior Relationship Manager for Truist Financial Corporation. He oversees relationships with large, privately held commercial real estate firms based in the Carolinas. Since being named to this position in February 2023, Dan has enabled Truist to be a preferred financial partner for many of the region's most successful commercial real estate companies. With a decade of banking experience, he previously worked with small and midsize real estate firms for Truist from 2018-2023. Passionate about real estate's impact on communities and land use, Dan serves as the Chair of ULI's national Emerging Leaders Product Council program and on the UNC Charlotte Fioretti Real Estate Fund Alumni Advisory Board. Previously, he served as a member of the board of Charlotte ULI district chapter. Dan earned a BS in Finance from Clemson University and a Master of Science in Real Estate Finance from UNC Charlotte. When he isn't working, Dan enjoys cooking, rowing, and traveling with his friends and wife, Heyward. Truist Financial Corporation is a purpose-driven financial services company committed to inspiring and building better lives and communities. As a top 10 U.S. commercial bank with leading market share in many high-growth markets, Truist is headquartered in Charlotte, North Carolina, and offers a wide range of services including retail, small business and commercial banking; asset management; capital markets; commercial real estate; corporate and institutional banking; insurance; mortgage; payments; specialized lending; and wealth management. Truist Bank, Member FDIC. Learn more at Truist.com.