Founder's Scholarship Application

ULI St. Louis, in partnership with our city's collegiate real estate programs, is pleased to offer several ULI memberships, via the ULI St. Louis Founders Scholarship, for the coming year. These scholarships will be awarded to students in either undergraduate or graduate level studies. The scholarships honor the four individuals responsible for founding ULI St. Louis over 25 years ago – Lewis Levey, Richard Ward, Dick Shepard and Marshall Kraemer.

What are the Benefits of a Student Membership?

- Complete ULI membership benefits for one year (see reverse)
- A one-to-one discussion and mentorship session with one of the four ULI St. Louis founders
- Access to national speakers and members-only webinars
- Networking with ULI St. Louis members
- Mentorship via the ULI St. Louis Young Leaders Group

Scholarship Requirements

- Attend a one-hour ULI St. Louis orientation during the first month of membership
- Provide up to 5 hours of volunteer time to assist with registration at programs, distributing materials at programs, and providing additional support on an as-needed basis
