

ULI MEMBERSHIP TOOLKIT

You recently joined as a ULI member. Now what?

Check out ways that you can get involved and make the most of your membership.

Member Tools: Log into your ULI profile and explore the various member-only platforms that allow you to:

- Connect with ULI members across the world to share expertise through the Member Directory and update your ULI member profile.
- Access a robust and expanding library of member-generated content and ideas, including case studies and research, in Knowledge Finder.
- Find both local and national volunteer and leadership opportunities with Navigator.

Attend an Event: ULI Philadelphia events are highly regarded for their quality content on important development issues. Members receive significant discounts on all ULI conferences, workshops and events. Bookmark our events calendar to stay up to date on all programming. Here are just a few events coming up in our region:

Join a Council: Fill out our Engagement Form to find a council, committee or program that best fits your interests and skill set. These are small, interdisciplinary groups that meet to learn about topics, tour projects, explore issues and network. This is the best way to start connecting with other local ULI members in a small group setting. You can attend a meeting as a guest while you are deciding the best fit.

More opportunities include:

- Serve as a mentor
- Teach a development lesson
- Sponsor the organization
- Volunteer on a Technical Assistance Panel (TAP)
- Host a meeting, event or tour

ULI is its members. Have an idea about a way to further our mission, provide member value or fill a policy or industry need? Share it!
