

ULI MINNESOTA PRODUCT COUNCILS

Product Councils

provide ULI members an opportunity to be part of a unique, small gathering of industry leaders.

Through intimate discussions, presentations, and private site tours, members participate in an open exchange regarding lessons learned on regional and national projects, and expand their base of professional knowledge. Product Council membership is invitation-only.

Community Development Council: community development directors from small and large cities who meet to focus on the most important developments around the region.

Community Development Council Co-Chairs:

Grant Fernelius, City of Coon Rapids
Anne Kane, City of White Bear Lake

Housing Council: private and non-profit housing development, design, and finance industry leaders and service providers, who meet to examine best practices that support a full range of housing choices in connected, livable places.

Housing Council Co-Chairs:

Jeff Schoeneck, Cunningham Group
Jeri Lynn Young, US Bank

Market Council: transaction-based real estate professionals active in the local market, who meet to focus on the most important transactions around the region.

Market Council Co-Chairs:

Tony Kuechle, Doran Companies
Steve Brown, The Excelsior Group

Resilient Communities Council: private and public sector practitioners actively engaged in the research, policy, planning, design, creation, and improvement of resilient communities, who meet to identify best practices.

Resilient Communities Council Co-Chairs:

Jessie Houlihan, Stahl Construction
John Shardlow, Stantec

"Participating on a product council has been a terrific experience. It has reminded me that I'm not alone facing the challenges of my job. I am meeting people and building connections that I can't find anywhere else."

- Grant Fernelius, Community Development Council Co-Chair
