

Thomas Shanabruch

Director of Finance

McCaffery Interests, Inc.

Mr. Shanabruch has over 13 years of commercial real estate investment experience focusing on acquiring value-add properties, structuring equity investments in joint venture development projects, and providing advisory services on real estate investment strategies for institutions, pension funds and high net worth individuals. At McCaffery, Mr. Shanabruch has been involved in planning, underwriting and financing over $750 million in urban mixed-use developments in Chicago, Pittsburgh and Washington D.C. including Chicago Lakeside, the former Children's Memorial Hospital site, and The Roosevelt Collection. Prior to McCaffery, Mr. Shanabruch was a Managing Director at McKinley. Thomas also led a team through purchasing, repositioning, and financing 5,000 value-add apartments in McKinley's portfolio. Thomas graduated from Beloit College with a BA in Economics & Religious Studies and earned an MBA from the University of Michigan.