

ULI WASHINGTON PATHWAYS TO INCLUSION INITIATIVE

WHO WE ARE

The Urban Land Institute is a nonprofit education and research institute supported by its members. Its mission is to provide leadership in the responsible use of land and in creating and sustaining thriving communities worldwide. ULI Washington is the local district council for the Washington, D.C., region and has over 2,200 members from throughout Maryland, Virginia, and D.C.

Established in 1936, the Institute has more than 44,000 members worldwide representing all aspects of land use and development disciplines.

THE INITIATIVE

The objective of the Pathways to Inclusion Initiative is to broaden ULI membership and to create a program that gives a platform to minority developers and land use professionals. We believe that by lowering the barriers to entry and diversifying our membership, we can better fulfill our organization's mission to provide leadership in creating and sustaining thriving communities.

PROGRAM FEATURES

Program participants will receive:

- Free registration to the ULI Fall Meeting in Washington, D.C., September 18-21, 2019
- A one-year membership to the Urban Land Institute
- A suggested track of programming at the Fall Meeting to mentor the group through key relationships and strengthen the cohort
- Additional opportunities after the Fall Meeting to reinforce access and engagement as a ULI member
