

Bank of America Merrill Lynch
Ellen Rogers, Senior Vice President,
Market Exec

As Market Executive for Southeast Region, Ellen Rogers manages a team that provides community development lending and equity investments throughout the region. She and her team cover a client base ranging from local developers to those with a large regional or national development scope. They focus their business development efforts on for-profit and not-for-profit real estate development organizations to provide financial products and services in support of affordable housing, economic development, and area revitalization with a geographic focus on the Southeast, but often reaching into markets across the country as they follow their clients. In addition, Ms. Rogers manages the Bank's charter school facilities financing business on a national level, providing more than $1 billion in school financing over the past 20 years.

Ms. Rogers has been with Bank of America for 18 years, and has more than twenty years experience working in commercial real estate banking and community development financing. She attended Queens University in Charlotte and NC School of Banking at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. She holds Series 7 and 63 licenses and participates as a mentor in the Cherie Blair International Foundation for Women in Business Program. Ms. Rogers currently serves as a director on UNCC's Real Estate Advisory Board, the Renaissance West Community Initiative Board and has recently joined the Charlotte LISC Advisory Board. She also belongs to various national real estate groups and associations.

Ellen Rogers
Ellen.rogers@baml.com

980-386-9401 Office
904-987-3740 Office
704-915-9889 Mobile