

Christine Carlyle

Principal & Director of Planning

SCB

Christine Carlyle, AIA, AICP Principal at SCB, founded and leads SCB's planning group in Chicago. With over 30 years of city planning, urban design and architectural design, in both the public and private sector, a majority of her planning practice focuses on large-scale mixed-use urban redevelopment projects. Her recent work includes The River District Master Plan; Ward Village Master Plan in Honolulu, HI; Chicago Transit Authority (CTA) Red Purple Line Modernization TOD Plans; West Loop Design Guidelines, Illinois Medical District Master Plan; Chicago Housing Authority Roosevelt Square Master Plan; Moline Downtown Plan; Concon, Chile, New Town Master Plan; Capital District, City Centre Master Plan, Abu Dhabi, UAE; Vision 2025 for the Greater North Michigan Avenue Association; Chicago; numerous local Comprehensive Plans and Transit Oriented District (TOD) plans; and planning visualization for the Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning (CMAP).

Her work has received recognition through numerous awards including; Friends of Downtown Best Plan, ULI Vision Award, International Downtown Association Planning Award, Congress of New Urbanism Awards; American Planning Association Best Practice Awards; National Endowment for the Arts Grants, three Greater Dallas Planning Council Urban Design Awards and Preservation Dallas Award.

Christine received her Bachelor's of Architecture from Carnegie Mellon University and her Master's of Architecture in Urban Design from Harvard University, Graduate School of Design.