

Drew Johnson

Assistant Director, Investments

Marquee Development LLC

Drew Johnson is responsible for analyzing Marquee Development's real estate investments. Drew is a member of Marquee's management finance committee and lead lease negotiations for the Gallagher Way campus. Prior to Marquee, Drew worked for Eastdil Secured where he underwrote and brought to market over 35 million square feet of commercial real estate in investment sales and debt placements. After working at Eastdil, he moved to Mexico City where he ran analysis for Mira Fund II; an institutional mixed-use development fund owned by Black Creek Capital and Ivanhoe Cambridge.

Drew is a member of the Urban Land Institute and the Real Estate Investment Association. Drew attends the University of Chicago Booth School of Business and holds a bachelor's degree from Southern Methodist University.