

Jacob Anderson

Assistant Vice President | Heitman

Jake is an Assistant Vice President in Heitman's Investment Research group. In this role, he provides insight into economic, capital markets, and property market fundamentals with a specific focus on the office, senior housing, single family rental, and student housing sectors as well as NCREIF. Prior to joining to Heitman, Jake held positions at JLL in the capital markets and research platforms.

Jake received a BA from Colgate University and MA in Urban Planning and Graduate Certificate in Real Estate from the University of Michigan.