

JOEY LETCHINGER

Project Manager | JDL Development

Joey began working for JDL Development in 2019 joining the team as a project manager. Joey is involved in all facets of managing day-to-day operations of existing assets as well as new development, design, and marketing of future projects.

Prior to JDL, Joey founded and operated a wine brokerage firm working with clients from all over the world. As a certified sommelier, Joey worked as the sommelier at New York's Del Posto. He previously worked for Danny Meyer and Daniel Boulud holding various positions in their food and hospitality entities.