

CHRISTINA LYNCH

Director of Legal | Cook County Assessor's Office

As the Director of Legal for the Cook County Assessor, Christina focuses the scope of her work on Incentives, Exempt and Omitted Properties and FOIA matters. She also serves as its Ethics Officer. In the past, Christina also served as labor counsel for the Assessor, interfacing with representatives of AFSCME Local 3835, and representing the office in progressive discipline matters and arbitrations.

Immediately prior to joining the Cook County Assessor's Office in 2018, Christina served as Ethics Manager and Staff Attorney to Cook County Clerk David Orr in the Elections Department.

Christina also has significant experience in the private sector. Before she began working for the County she represented buyers and sellers in residential real estate transactions, and was a litigator for far too long, representing financial institutions and businesses both large and small in a variety of matters.

Christina received her B.A. in International Studies, with minors in Spanish and Latin American Studies, from Miami University in Oxford, OH, and her J.D. and Certificate in Criminal Law from the DePaul University College of Law in Chicago, IL.
