

THORSTEN JOHANN

Design Principal | Studio Gang

Thorsten Johann is a Design Principal in Studio Gang's Chicago office, where he leads design teams for large-scale, mixed-use projects. Driven by research, Tosh is experienced in designing and leading teams with a wide range of disciplines. He has contributed to many projects since joining Studio Gang in 2003, including Aqua Tower, City Hyde Park, The St. Regis Chicago, and Assemble Chicago, a new mixed-use project in the heart of the Loop. Currently, he is Deputy Design Lead on the O'Hare Global Terminal project. Originally from Munich, Germany, Tosh earned his Master of Architecture from the Technische Universität Berlin, Germany.
