

CHRISTINE KOLB

Senior Director, Development | Greystar

Christine Kolb is a senior director for Greystar, and responsible for the sourcing, acquisition, and development of industrial and residential sites throughout the Midwest region. Over her career, Christine has managed more than $560M of developments and created 1600 units of housing.

In addition to private sector development, Christine has experience shaping land use policy and providing technical assistance on behalf of philanthropic initiatives and industry think tanks, including ULI, the MacArthur Foundation, and The Chicago Community Trust. She remains passionate about working with public, private, and non-profit partners to creatively solve real estate challenges. Christine is an active member of the Career Development Committee of the Goldie Initiative; Past President of Real Estate Finance Forum (REFF); former Co-Chair of the Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning (CMAP) Housing Committee; and former Co-Chair of the Careers and Networking Committee for the Alumni Council for the University of Chicago's Harris School. Christine received a master's degree in public policy from the University of Chicago and a B.A. from the University of Oregon.

