

Ann Reckelhoff

Director of Development | Marquette Companies

Ann Reckelhoff joined Marquette in 2011 and is currently the Assistant Director of Development. In her role, Ann is responsible for leading the day-to-day operations of new multifamily developments in the northern half of the United States. Ann plays an important role in all aspects of the project including branding & design, construction management, hiring, and operations. Ann is also responsible for the management and lease-up of new multifamily developments until they are stabilized above 90% occupancy. Ann held several roles at Marquette prior to her current, including property manager, regional manager, and learning & development coordinator. She is committed to hiring and training highly skilled, well-rounded individuals, and remains focused on proving a strong first impression through outstanding curb appeal and consistent merchandising at all assets. Ann holds a bachelor's degree in Secondary Education from Indiana University.
