

Doug Farr

Founding Principal, President | Farr Associates Architecture and Urban Design P.C.

Doug Farr (FAIA, F-CNU, LEED-AP) is a nationally recognized architect, urbanist, and author. He leads Chicago-based Farr Associates, a pioneering, sustainability-driven architecture and urban design firm recognized by the New York Times as “the most prominent of the city’s growing cadre of ecologically sensitive architects.” Most recently, Doug co-founded the Climate Action Museum, located in downtown Chicago. The museum’s mission is to activate a tipping point on climate mitigation in the region through education, stimulating critical thought, and to inspire and facilitate direct action.
