

Mari Lehman

Vice President | Sterling Bay

Mari currently works at Sterling Bay as a Vice President on their investments team, specializing in real estate investment and development with eight years of experience in the industry. She focuses on office opportunities across Chicago and in southeast markets including Atlanta and Miami. Mari received her BBA in Real Estate & Urban Land Economics from the University of Wisconsin – Madison and is actively involved with ULI, Wisconsin Real Estate Alumni Association, Real Estate Finance Forum, and the associate board for the American Cancer Society where she currently serves as a Director.

