

Molly Ekerdt

Vice President | Preservation of Affordable Housing (POAH)

Molly Ekerdt is a Vice President in POAH's Chicago office where she leads POAH's underwriting and transaction structuring and serves as POAH's main staff contact for the organizations' recently-acquired Cincinnati portfolio.

Molly has worked for POAH Chicago since 2011 as a project manager and senior project manager, and has been involved in new construction of affordable housing and complex rehabilitation efforts in Chicago's Woodlawn and Near West side neighborhoods.

In previous positions she was Development Project Manager for the Planning Office for Urban Affairs, a non-profit developer affiliated with the Archdiocese of Boston and Community Services Director at City Vision Ministries, a community development corporation in Kansas City, Kansas.

Molly holds a bachelor's degree from Grinnell College and a master's degree in City Planning from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

