

Leighann Dunn
Project Architect, Corgan

Leighann Dunn is a data center specialist with Corgan, a global architecture and design firm where she leverages her keen eye for detail and organizational skills to drive project success. She is a highly effective communicator and collaborator, with a proven track record of working closely with clients to achieve their goals. Leighann brings a strategic and proactive approach to every project she is involved with.

