

Stephen Fluhr

Senior Vice President, Development | Unibail-Rodamco-Westfield

Stephen Fluhr is Senior Vice President, Development for Unibail-Rodamco-Westfield (URW) and oversees development activity for assets in the eastern US.

Stephen started with Westfield in 2000 as the Assistant General Manager at Westfield Montgomery in Maryland and, in progressively more responsible roles, worked for the company in Tampa, Los Angeles, and San Diego before taking his current position, which includes the development at Westfield Old Orchard. Previously, Stephen was with the Fairfax County Park Authority oversaw all aspects of maintenance, restoration, and operation of nine historic properties.

Stephen graduated from Villanova University with a Bachelor of Arts in French with a Minor in Business.