

Sarah Silva
Vice President
JLL

Sarah is responsible for representing both local and national corporate office clients in portfolio management and site selection. With over a decade of expertise working with companies from start-ups to Fortune 500's, Sarah is passionate about helping businesses find the perfect space to succeed at the best terms possible. She brings a blend of transparency and a fresh perspective to the field with the goal of saving her clients time and money.