

ULI EDUCATION

Charting Our Learning Path

ULI DFW Education Starts with our Volunteer Programs

UrbanPlan

A hands-on, realistic exercise harnessing the power of experiential learning to help students and community members dig deeper into the complexities of land-use decisions and the critical role those decisions play in shaping our communities. ULI DFW offers UrbanPlan to high school students, municipalities, and community groups. For more information, visit americas.uli.org/programs/urbanplan/

Building Industry Leaders

A cooperative mentorship program between ULI and the Boys & Girls Clubs to educate high school students on numerous career opportunities in commercial real estate, cultivating their professional skills as they work to become industry leaders and contributing members of their community.
