Champions of Change

We are committed to empowering diverse representation throughout the commercial real estate industry. The inclusion of diverse populations in the real estate industry results in the development of stronger, more equitable, and thriving communities.

By pairing education with deliberate action, our affinity groups are dedicated to helping pave the way for new and inclusive pathways and practices in the real estate industry.

Affinity Groups include: Young Leaders Group, NEXT, Women's Leadership Initiative, and Pathways to Inclusion

EVENTS RANGE IN

Breakfast Forums

Breakfast Forums are content-focused, information-dense events, concisely packaged in a short morning presentation or panel discussion over breakfast. Typically attracting 50-100 attendees, our Forums offer the ability to grow your network while mingling over coffee. Meet fellow members and hear from the leaders of our region's CRE industry, all before your first business meeting of the day.

ATTENDANCE OF 50 -100 CRE
PROFESSIONALS

Education

UrbanPlan is a proven way to educate high school and college students on the dynamics of real estate ownership, development and planning. It is a realistic, engaging, and academically challenging classroom-based program where students learn the roles, issues, trade-offs, and economics involved in urban development. The program provides tomorrow's future voters, neighbors, public officials, and land use professionals with a hands-on experience of developing realistic land use solutions to complex urban growth challenges
