

Class of 2021 applications due: July 17, 2020

Our mission is to cultivate innovators in the built environment

ULI Southeast Florida/Caribbean announces its third year of this nationally-recognized leadership development program. Many land use and real estate professionals have benefited from this program and are now part of the global alumni network.

Leadership Institute participants will engage with industry experts, local executives, and national thought leaders on the region's most pressing issues.

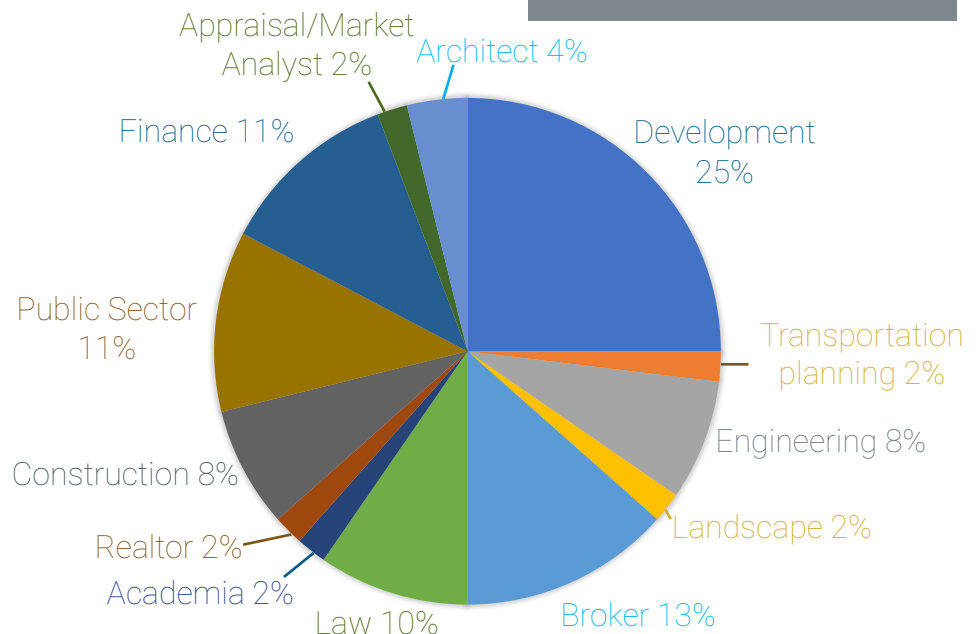

The class will feature leadership development training facilitated by executive coaches and experienced professionals. Join the 2021 cohort to make your mark on our built environment.

Why participate?

- Expand your leadership skills and personal network
- Establish new perspectives on land use, development, and the challenges and opportunities facing our region
- Engage with a diverse group of industry leaders

Who participates?

- Individuals working in the real estate industry and related fields
- Emerging leaders slated for future leadership roles
- Those who have a minimum 7 years of real estate experience
- Those committed to community service and civic engagement
- Those who have a vision for the future of the SE Florida region
- The program is open to ULI members and non-members alike
