WLI Book Club without the Books Series

Designed to leverage the power of local small and approachable gatherings, the BCWB is for established and emerging leaders who want to develop great connections with fellow members.

Celebrating the Impact of the Championship Team

WLI Champions are individuals selected for their leadership and skill in real estate development, land use and city-building.

The Championship event celebrates the WLI Champions and welcomes the new inductees

Women, Life, Freedom

Bringing Community together to gain a shared historical understanding of Iran and trace the journey to the growth of Tehronto.

Celebration of Iranian-Canadian Women’s Contribution to Toronto’s Built Environment

WLI Reset: The Newcomers’ Journey in City Building: A Night of Connecting and Storytelling

WLI held an engaging discussion among newcomer professionals, employers and educators to talk about challenges, best practices and opportunities for supporting these professionals to find and succeed in meaningful employment.

Women-Led City Building Mixer

An annual Fall Industry Social, a “Women-Led City Building Mixer” that brings together senior and rising leaders for a unique exchange of ideas and connections.
