

ULI Washington Introduces FY22 District Council Leadership

It's officially a ULI Washington 'New Year' as our Fiscal Year 2022 started on July 1, 2021. We're proud to introduce our new ULI Washington District Council officers:

District Council Chair Julie Smith, The Bozzuto Group

Governance Chair Jamie Weinbaum, MidCity Development

Chair for Mission Advancement Anthony Chang

Treasurer Sarah Goss O'Rielly, DC Office of the Chief Financial Officer

Our District Council leadership is dedicated to promoting our mission to shape the future of the built environment for transformative impact in communities worldwide. With more than 20 years of experience each, they bring a strong commitment to the industry and the Washington, DC region. Under their leadership, ULI Washington will further our mission and the pillars of our strategic plan: Organizational Strength; Membership Engagement; Impact and Influence and Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion.

In addition to our District Council officers, ULI Washington is pleased to announce our FY22 Governance, Executive, and Management Committee members. These leaders represent a diverse range of experiences, skill sets, and organizations across the land use and real estate industries. They will support ULI Washington to actively engage a wider audience in our outreach, research, and programming.

About ULI Washington

ULI Washington is a District Council of the Urban Land Institute (ULI), a nonprofit education and research organization. Representing the full spectrum of land use and real estate professionals, ULI Washington and our 2,300 members carry out the ULI mission to shape the future of the built environment for transformative impact in communities worldwide. Our organization advances the mission locally by sharing best practices, building consensus, and advancing solutions through research, educational programs, and community outreach initiatives.
