

Barbara Mackin

Barb is a Senior Vice President, Market Executive and CRE Relationship Manager at EagleBank, a leading community bank and CRE lender in the Washington DC Metropolitan Area. Barb's career has been spent in CRE Banking and Asset Management roles and she has a comprehensive understanding of financing, asset management and operations for CRE projects. She is highly skilled in maximizing portfolio performance and implementing strategic plans through consultative teamwork with project teams (underwriting, administration, legal, development, leasing, property management, 3rd party consultants, etc.) in growth oriented environments and distressed property situations.