

EeTiong LIM, Studio Director, Gensler, Singapore

EeTiong Lim, a UK registered architect, has many years experience in London, Hong Kong and Singapore. He has knowledge of large scale architecture and master planning design projects in Europe, Middle East and Asia Pacific. Many of the projects involve complex design, programming and management challenges. He specializes in design and delivery of Mixed use, Transport Orientated Developments (TOD), High rise projects and master planning developments. He has led many high profile projects in Asia Pacific, some of the key projects that he has led and was involved in include Singapore Capitaland Rochester Park development, HCMC Landmark 81 development, Jakarta-Bandung high speed rail TOD master plan, Guangzhou TOD development and China Merchants Bank Shanghai HQ.