

Kristin Thorsteins, Vice President Development, Asset Management & Construction - South East Asia and Pacific

Kristin Thorsteins is Head of Development, Asset Management, and Construction for South East Asia and Pacific at Club Med, the global leader of upscale, all-inclusive resorts. Before relocating to Asia, Kristin spent ten years in hotel & real estate development, management, and advisory services in London, Paris, and Brussels with companies such as HVS and the Radisson Hotel Group. For the last seven years, Kristin has been living in Singapore with her family, where she leads a passionate team that oversees the development of new Club Med resorts in the region in addition to overseeing the region's asset management strategy.

Originally from Iceland, Kristin holds an MSc in Hospitality Management from Oxford Brookes University, UK, and a degree in Real Estate Management from ICH in Paris. She is a frequent speaker and panelist in hospitality-related forums and a firm advocate for the advancement of women, throughout their careers, as leaders in the industry.
