

Chong Zhe Wei

Zhe Wei has >15 years of professional experience in real estate, innovation, management consulting, business and government.

He co-founded the Afternaut, the innovation and experience design company working at the intersection of business, design and technology.

Zhe Wei also leads an investment management and advisory firm, focusing on opportunities in the Built Environment and Sustainability space.

He was previously a member of the Oliver Wyman's global management consulting team, where he worked across the Asia Pacific region for government, corporates and NGOs. Zhe Wei began his professional career in the Singapore Government.

Zhe Wei holds a MSc Decision Sciences (Dist) from the London School of Economics and Political Science and a BSc Chemistry (1st Class Hons.) from Imperial College, London.