

George Agethen

George Agethen is responsible for the investment and asset-management strategies for APAC outlined in the Ivanhoé Cambridge's annual business and strategic plans. He works with internal and external stakeholders to put in place and consolidate strategic partnerships for major projects being developed in the Asia-Pacific region.

Mr. Agethen holds bachelor's degrees in commerce and in law and a master's degree in commerce, specializing in finance, from University of New South Wales in Sydney, Australia.

Over the course of his career, George has lived in Australia, Hong Kong, Singapore, and China.

Ivanhoé Cambridge develops and invests in high-quality real estate properties, projects and companies that are shaping the urban fabric in dynamic cities around the world. It does so responsibly, with a view to generate long-term performance. Ivanhoé Cambridge is committed to creating living spaces that foster the well-being of people and communities, while reducing its environmental footprint. Ivanhoé Cambridge invests internationally alongside strategic partners and major real estate funds that are leaders in their markets. Through subsidiaries and partnerships, the Company holds interests in more than 1,000 buildings, primarily in the industrial and logistics, office, residential and retail sectors. Ivanhoé Cambridge held C$64 billion in real estate assets as at December 31, 2019 and is a real estate subsidiary of the Caisse de dépôt et placement du Québec (cdpq.com), one of Canada's leading institutional fund managers.