

Kristin Thorsteinsdottir - Profile

Kristin Thorsteinsdottir heads up partnership development and asset-light expansion in India, Singapore, South Korea and various other APAC markets for IWG plc, the global leader in hybrid working.

Kristin spent over 15 years in hotel & real estate development and advisory in EMEA and APAC with companies such as HVS and The Radisson Hotel Group after cutting her teeth on her family's hospitality business in Iceland. Nine years ago, fate brought her to Singapore, where her latest assignment prior to joining IWG plc was leading development and asset management in the region for Club Med.

Kristin is a recognized industry leader and a regular panellist & speaker at real estate conferences and a member of the Urban Land Institute - Hotel Development Council & Women's Leadership Initiative. Kristin holds an MSc in Hospitality Management from Oxford Brookes University and a degree in Real Estate Management from ICH in Paris.
