Description: Join Bmore NOMA and ULI Baltimore for a presentation about the Community Wealth Builders organization and their business crowdfunding platform Maryland Neighborhood Exchange, as well as their partner real estate development crowdfunding platform, Small Change.

- Community Wealth Builders, founded and directed by Stephanie Geller, is a nonprofit initiative focused on promoting and catalyzing community wealth building models and strategies across Baltimore. <https://www.communitywealthbuilders.org/>
- Maryland Neighborhood Exchange is the nation's first locally-focused grassroots investment crowdfunding platform. Co-founded and co-directed by Stephanie Geller and Michael Shuman, the Exchange aims to foster a more sustainable, robust, and resilient local economy by expanding investment crowdfunding across the state. <https://www.communitywealthbuilders.org/md-exchange.html>
- Small Change is a real estate investment crowdfunding platform that matches investors with developers raising funds for transformative real estate projects, to build better cities everywhere and to provide everyone with the opportunity to invest. <https://www.smallchange.co/>
