

OUTSTANDING HOUSING LEADERSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Nationally-reputed Baltimore nonprofit seeks innovative leader to oversee 800-unit housing and community development department. Reporting to the organization's top executive, the successful candidate will serve on the organization's executive management team and lead the development of new affordable housing initiatives, manage contracts, vendor relationships & business partnerships. With more than three decades of success in the housing industry, the organization is part of a highly-successful multi-state health system committed to addressing the social determinants of health throughout its footprint. With a highly-competitive compensation and benefits package, the role represents an outstanding career opportunity for candidates with deep housing & community development experience and relationships; advanced degree in related field desired. Contact george_kleb@bshsi.org for more information.