

Call for Entries 2024: WaveMaker Awards Program

**Submission Due Date: Friday July 12, 2024**

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

The ULI Baltimore District Council is now accepting applications for the 2024 WaveMaker Awards. Projects must be located within the following Maryland counties: Allegheny, Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Baltimore City, Caroline, Carroll, Cecil, Dorchester, Fredrick, Garrett, Harford, Howard, Kent, Queen Anne's, Somerset, Talbot, Washington, Wicomico, or Worcester. Applicants shall pay close attention to the below required information along with the Judging Criteria as both are directly correlated to the overall scoring process. Applications shall include:

- Applicant name, address, phone number, and email address;
- All of the companies / individuals that were involved in the project;
- A 2-3 sentence “overview” paragraph describing the project;
- A brief description of how the project meets the Judging Criteria, based on the following section below;
- Project completion date (no later than 9/1/2024);
- Any other pertinent information the applicant wishes to include;
- High-resolution images of plans and/or photographs, preferred over renderings, that clearly demonstrate the project and help in the evaluation of the application; and
- Point of contact for Award Submission
- Submit a featured image and 2-3 additional images for ULI Marketing purposes
- Printed display board (size details below)

All submissions are due by July 12, 2024 @ 11:59pm. Email all applications to Lisa.Norris@uli.org and mail a check for $250 made payable to:

The Urban Land Institute of Baltimore
c/o Lisa Norris
1215 E. Fort Avenue, Suite 200
Baltimore, MD 21230

A printed display board is also part of the submission requirements. The board should, at minimum, provide project name, location, team, and high-resolution images. Boards shall be 36 x 36 inches standard foam core board and are due no later than 4:00pm on July 24, 2024. Boards may be delivered to:

The Urban Land Institute of Baltimore
c/o Lisa Norris
1215 E. Fort Avenue, Suite 200
Baltimore, MD 21230

Award winners will be announced in advance through a “marketing-style” email detailing each project. On the day of the WaveMaker event, the program will offer an exclusive 30-minute pre-network “Meet and Greet” for winning teams. Additional details will be provided closer to the event.

JUDGING CRITERIA

Applications should clearly address the following six (6) categories and should be organized in the same manner:

- PROJECT OVERVIEW – provide a descriptive 2-3 sentence project overview.
- COMPLETENESS – describe in detail the completeness and financial viability of the project. A program and/or process (i.e. growth management strategy or publicly guided development program) must be fully implemented and must be a sound investment of private and/or public funds in terms of their success in transforming communities and neighborhoods.
- A SENSE OF PLACE AND QUALITY – explain how the project reflects the special characteristics of the locality, community, and region in which it is located OR creates an inspiring environment that becomes an important anchor of the surrounding community. The project shall achieve a high standard of excellence in all areas – design, construction, economics, marketing, and management.
- SUSTAINABILITY – describe how the project incorporates elements of sustainability such as being in a priority funding area (preferably a redevelopment or infill site), use of existing infrastructure, utilization of green technologies (building and/or site), use of alternative transportation methods and/or transit-oriented design, and addressing existing local neighborhood needs such as job training, employment growth, educational and recreational programs for all ages.
- VISIONARY AND EMULATION – illustrate how the project steps out from the norm, taking a concept to a brand-new level that others will want to emulate.
- A NEED – demonstrate that the project responds to the unique needs of the area in which it is located and to the customers it will serve.

The WaveMaker Committee highly recommends referencing recent winning submissions posted on the ULI Baltimore WaveMaker Awards website as a guide to ensure a proper, clear project application for judging. Also, please note that all 2024 winning submissions will be similarly posted on the ULI Baltimore website, so be mindful of any sensitive client / project information not intended for public viewing. We appreciate your participation and look forward to your 2024 submission!
