

Program Description

The BCIT Next Program provides students studying in areas related to real estate development, design, and construction the opportunity to learn from, and network with, esteemed professionals in Metro Vancouver's real estate industry. The goal of the program is to further your real estate knowledge, expand your professional network, and assist with your transition from school to full-time work.

In this program, you will:

- Attend exclusive events featuring senior-level individuals in the construction, trades, development, planning, and design professions.
- Participate in a private site tour of a development in Metro Vancouver.
- Gain tangible knowledge and insights into the real estate industry.
- Connect with real estate professionals, including the Young Leaders Group (YLG) and the Women's Leadership Initiative (WLI) which are local volunteer initiatives within the Urban Land Institute (ULI) British Columbia.

The program is offered in collaboration with ULI BC's Women's Leadership Initiative. The program is free and is open to students of all genders.
