

I benefitted greatly from my involvement in the ULI Etkin Scholars program. I found the Corridors of Opportunity TAP presentation incredibly enriching as it gave me a better understanding of what different factors come into play to make meaningful improvements and changes to a historically underserved community. Additionally, I loved participating in the mentorship program and was exposed to a variety of industry professionals whom I intend to keep in touch with long past my time as an Etkin Scholar.

Connie Henderson

2022-2023

UNCC