

I much appreciated the Mentorship Program and the site tours. Both provided a relaxed and welcoming environment where we were able to ask questions and have meaningful conversations. The mentors come from different backgrounds and are very willing to assist in making a connection with others in the industry. The site tours were mostly led by the main stakeholders who shared great stories and demonstrated a great passion for their work. These experiences were inspiring and reinforced my desire to be a part of this industry.

Paola Navarrete

2022-2023

UNC Charlotte