

Kris Fetter

Faison

In 2019, Mr. Fetter was appointed President and CEO of Faison Enterprises, a private real estate investment firm specializing in the acquisition, development, and management of commercial real estate across multiple asset classes including office, retail, industrial, and multifamily properties. Mr. Fetter joined Faison in 2010, primarily leading the firm's multifamily development program across the Southeast. He started his career in commercial estate in 1998 with Morningstar Properties overseeing acquisitions/development underwriting, property management, and construction services.

Philanthropy: At Faison, part of the firm's mission is to honor the legacy of Henry Faison. The company invests in organizations and transformative initiatives that provide housing security for families, strong learning foundations for children, and education and workforce readiness for young adults. In the last decade, the company has directed over $20M to nonprofits serving the Charlotte region.

Education: BA, University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill in 1988.

MBA, The Kenan-Flagler Business School at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1996.

Professional organizations: Urban Land Institute (ULI) and National Multifamily Housing Council (NMHC).

Board member and chair - The Childress Klein Center for Real Estate at UNC Charlotte's Belk College of Business.

Board of Visitors member - University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

Board and executive committee member – Good Fellows Club

Board Member: Faison Enterprises, Inc; The HJF Foundation; and The Hawk Foundation

Personal Information: Married to Mary Hahn Fetter (August 1995); three children (Isabel 27, Thomas 25, Charlie 21); two dogs (Hattie-English Bulldog and Alice-Pug)

Neighborhood: Elizabeth