Brian is the Principal and Founder of Rylake Consulting, where he creates value during the real estate development and construction process for ownership groups across the Carolinas. With a focus on complex urban infill properties, Brian has extensive experience in multifamily, office, retail, and hospitality assets. He has participated in the development of over 10,000 apartment homes across nearly 40 communities.

Prior to founding Rylake Consulting, Brian served as VP of Development at LMC, where he was responsible for multifamily and mixed-use projects throughout the Carolinas. He spent the first ten years of his career in the DC market, most notably as a Project Executive for Kettler, overseeing high-rise condos and apartments valued at over $1 billion.

Brian holds a Bachelor of Science in Building Construction from the University of Florida and a Master of Science in Real Estate from Johns Hopkins University.
