WHY BE A MEMBER?

cincinnati.uli.org

By joining the Urban Land Institute, you become part of the largest independent global network of cross disciplinary real estate and land use experts, dedicated to one mission: to help shape the future of the built environment for transformative impact in communities worldwide. Members of ULI are leaders in the responsible use of land and in the creation of thriving, sustainable communities.

Top 3 Reasons to be a Member

#1 Relationships Meet industry leaders at local District Council events and large-scale conferences, such as the ULI Fall and Spring Meetings. Connect to ULI members around the world on Member Directory. Network and grow multi-disciplinary relationships through programs, events, and tours. Through your relationships, deals get done! Membership provides opportunity to connect to 45,000+ worldwide with the online Member Directory. Join a National or Regional Product Council to share best practices, discussions, and off-site tours with a select group of industry leaders.

#2 Information Unlock valuable programming on Knowledge Finder, the largest global real estate library. Gain inspiration and practical guidance with unlimited member access to reports, videos, webinars, and more. Members stay current on real estate industry trends, ideas and information through publications, programming, and conferences. Members are provided access to Knowledge Finder for help with quick references or more complex research and a subscription to Urban Land Magazine and 25% savings on ULI books, publications, education, and webinars.

#3 Involvement Gain industry recognition, share best practices by serving on a committee, or mentor the next generation when you find volunteer and leadership opportunities locally, regionally or globally. Members are encouraged to join a local committee based on specific interests and are provided access to Navigator for global volunteer and leadership opportunities. ULI Cincinnati members are asked to volunteer on a Technical Assistance Panel (TAP) and help support diversity, equity and inclusion initiatives by teaching, becoming a mentor and/or supporting for ULI Cincinnati's Real Estate Accelerator Lab (REAL).
