2026/27 CHECKLIST

Technical Advisory Panels

Urban Land Institute – Colorado District Council (ULI Colorado)

This checklist is provided to guide applicants and judges for selection of this years' Technical Advisory Panels.

Checklist for ULI Colorado Technical Advisory Panels (TAPs) DRCOG Request for Applications (RFA)

1. Eligibility (For those applying for DRCOG Funds only)

- ☐ Applicant is a nonprofit institution or public agency (with the potential for a private entity partner)
- ☐ The area of study is located in a DRCOG community
- ☐ Applicant has a letter of support
- ☐ Applicant has attached a non-binding pledge of $17,500

Applicant must meet the above criteria before submitting an application.

2. Application

- ☐ Applicant has submitted a project narrative with a defined study area and proposed scope of work
- ☐ Applicant has crafted a problem statement
- ☐ Applicant has submitted questions for the panel to address

3. Scoring

- ☐ Application has clear identification and definition of the obstacles and challenges to creating successful development/redevelopment
- ☐ Applicant's project has potential to benefit stakeholders and the broader community
- ☐ Applicant's project narrative translates a clear, concise and articulate scope for the TAP
- ☐ The application demonstrates the exemplary potential of the project as a successful development that embodies ULI's best practices [link]
- ☐ The applicant's project has potential to win broad support, investment and market success