Thank you for considering sponsoring ULI Indiana's TRENDS event in 2024! We are already well under way planning and are excited to host our first event at the Scottish Rite Cathedral. In 2023, we had record attendance reaching almost 300 and anticipate the same in 2024.

As you may already know, ULI Indiana's annual TRENDS is our signature event, which attracts local and national industry leaders and development visionaries to help us break down the trends which effect the built environment.

We are elevating the event this year in several ways, including offering VIP tables (but there are only 8 available, so hurry!). To kick off the event, we are bringing in a nationally recognized keynote speaker, we will hear from PwC to provide an overview of the Emerging Trends in Real Estate® publication, recognize our 2024 REDI scholars and end with a local panel of industry leaders. We will wrap up the event with our always popular networking reception and more!
