

ULI Philadelphia Annual Sponsor Guide to the Forecast

Viewing options

- Virtual and in-person attendance options are available for this year’s Forecast.
- In-person options include General Presentation for quiet theater-style seating and an opportunity to hear from the speakers in the main theater, and a Screening Lounge for a live simulcast screening of the presentations in a separate room for those who prefer to chat or need to step out.
- In-person viewing options are limited in capacity and offered on a first come first served basis; as one sells out, registrants will be automatically assigned to the other.
- Due to limits in capacity, registrants who elect to attend virtually will not be guaranteed seating in-person. Please contact Customer Service (customerservice@uli.org) if you’d like to change your registration selection.
