About the Event

Cities throughout Pennsylvania are evolving at a rapid rate. Whether it be the ever-changing infrastructure demands, the need for creative developments, or making our cities more viable for the future. Join us to hear from mayors of three prominent Pennsylvania Cities: Harrisburg, Lancaster and York. These Mayors will share their visions, strategic plans, challenges and highlights for their respective cities. We will also hear from the mayors on their cities' post-pandemic development and how they are utilizing the federal pandemic relief funding. This event will also showcase the most exciting upcoming urban projects and how we can work together as a region to create better developments, communities, and economic growth.
