C. BRODY GLENN
PRESIDENT

Brody Glenn is the President of Centennial American Properties LLC (CAP), a commercial real estate development and management company headquartered in Greenville, South Carolina. Brody joined CAP in 2002 after receiving his MBA from the Terry School at UGA. Currently, Brody manages the day-to-day operations of the company and has been an integral part of successfully developing more than six million square feet of commercial space, including neighborhood and community shopping centers, free-standing retail stores, specialty centers and professional office buildings, in many markets from Coast to Coast.

In recent years, Brody has been focused on single tenant developments for Walgreens and Trader Joes. With Brody’s leadership, CAP has become a preferred developer for Walgreens and has completed 25 plus stores in the last 7 years in locations from the state of Washington to Florida. Brody has led the CAP team to become the largest Trader Joe’s developer in the country. With his leadership, CAP has opened nine Trader Joes in 5 years throughout the southeast. CAP is the only developer that has opened more than 5 stores in the Trader Joes history. Before, Brody focused on single tenant projects. He developed multiple Target anchor power centers, and other anchored developments throughout the country.

A native of Greenville SC, Brody has been large contributor in the revitalization of downtown Greenville. He was the chairman of the city of Greenville planning commission from 2004 to 2012. He also was the development leader for many downtown projects including the redevelopment of the SunTrust Plaza, the EP 360 development as well as Greenville’s acclaimed downtown baseball stadium, Fluor Field and The Field House. Brody currently is leading the CAP development team for the Camperdown project in the heart of Greenville. Brody served on the Board of Visitors at University of South Carolina for 8 years, from 2009-2017.

Brody is a graduate of University of South Carolina with a double major in Management and Real Estate, and received his MBA from University of Georgia. He resides in Greenville with his wife, Kim, and four children.
