

Phil Kim

Managing Director Asia Pacific

Jerde Partnership

Phil Kim is a Board Member, Shareholder and Managing Director Asia Pacific at the Jerde Partnership, Inc. in Los Angeles and Hong Kong, focusing on Jerde's constantly evolving Placemaking ideas that has impacted fast evolving cities, and has helped rejuvenated Asia cities with recognition of over 150 international design awards.

He also advises private and public companies on innovations in mixed-use design, retail, urban revitalization, vertical cities and building social sustainability and the value of place. Langham Place Hong Kong, Roppongi Hills Tokyo, Queens Wharf Brisbane and the Quay Quarters Sydney are some of the past and present notable projects representative of a people-based design that draws over one billion visitors to Jerde projects around the world annually in twenty countries.

As a member and volunteer for the Urban Land Institute, he is currently a Global Governing Trustee, Co-Chair of the education program Urban Plan for Hong Kong and Asia, and a member of the Hong Kong Executive Council.