

Lisa Gainsley

Assistant General Manager, Swire Properties

Lisa is responsible for asset management activities within Swire Properties. Since joining the company in 2016, Lisa has primarily been involved with the US$2.0bn redevelopment and repositioning of Swire Properties' largest mixed-used asset, Taikoo Place. Mostly recently Lisa was seconded to Swire Properties U.S.A. operations, where she led financing activities for the company's future Miami developments. During her time at Swire Properties, Lisa has also been involved in other projects such as the repositioning of Blueprint, Swire Properties' owned and operated flexible workspace and events venue, and the lease up and marketing of One Taikoo Place. Lisa sits on the company's Placemaking Steering Committee and on the Development Teams for Taikoo Place and the surrounding areas. Lisa is also involved with the company's Sustainable Development 2030 Strategy, which aims to position Swire Properties as the global leading sustainable development performer in the industry by 2030.

Prior to joining Swire Properties, Lisa was based in New York City for seven years focusing on commercial real estate debt originations and distressed debt acquisitions at Starwood Capital Group and Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. Lisa earned her B.S. in Finance from Georgetown University.
