

Ricky joined Savills since 2006 and had more than 28 years' property experience. He currently heads up Savills' Leasing Team and is responsible for leading the day to day management of Savills' Hong Kong and Kowloon leasing business.

Ricky focuses on working on behalf of an occupier clientele, leveraging his extensive working knowledge of the Hong Kong landlord community. He provides advice to occupiers on issues such as lease acquisition, renewals and leasing restructuring strategies. His clients are largely major multi-national companies and enterprises in Hong Kong and corporations from China.

Ricky has extensive experience in managing property portfolios for major corporations and institutional investors. Prior to joining Savills, he worked with Jones Lang LaSalle where he was responsible for lettings on behalf of a number of major Hong Kong developers, primarily concentrating on new developments including general agency transactions.
